Policy terms and conditions as per the underlying policy

Communicable Disease Exclusion

This policy excludes and does not cover any claim or loss(es), including but not limited to any physical loss, financial loss, cost or expense, injury, liability or physical damage caused by, arising out of, resulting from, contributed to by, occasioned by or resulting from, in consequence of, in any way involving, occurring concurrently or in any sequence with:

1. a Communicable Disease; or
2. the fear or threat (whether actual or perceived) of a Communicable Disease; or
3. any cost or expense incurred to clean, detoxify, remove, decontaminate, sanitise, neutralise, sterilise, monitor or test for a Communicable Disease.

For the purpose of this exclusion, "Communicable Disease" means any infectious or contagious substance:

1. including, but not limited to, a virus, disease, bacterium, parasite, pathogen, bacterial infection, viral infection, microbial infection, biological infection, or other organism or any mutation thereof, whether deemed living or not, whatever the type or strain, in whatever form or quantity; and
2. regardless of the method of transmission, whether direct or indirect, including, but not limited to, airborne transmission, bodily fluid transmission, transmission from or to any surface or object, solid, liquid or gas or between humans, animals, or from any animal to any human or from any human to any animal;

which:

- a. can cause or threaten damage to human health or human welfare, or causes or threatens damage, deterioration, loss of value, marketability or loss of use to tangible or intangible property insured; or
- b. is declared an epidemic or public emergency by the government, public authority, local authority or any other governing body responsible for public health; or
- c. is declared a pandemic, global viral emergency or a Public Health Emergency of International Concern (PHEIC) by the World Health Organisation; or
- d. is notifiable to the government or a local authority under any law, order, act or statute.

For avoidance of doubt, no coverage extension, additional coverage, global extension, exception to any exclusion or other coverage grant shall afford any coverage that would otherwise be excluded by this exclusion.
